Subject: [Bgmrc-list] List test
Message-ID: <4AD78904.5020500@ak4mc.us>

This is a test of the BGMRC.org e-mail reflector on BGMRC.org.
Anyone
not receiving this message please reply immediately.

...wait, that's not going to work, is it?

Anyway: to send messages to this list please use bgmrc-list at bgmrc.org

To change your list membership settings go to http://bgmrc.org/mailman/listinfo/bgmrc-list_bgmrc.org/ and request a password reminder so that you can log in.

For the moment I am acting as list admin but once I'm sure the new list
is running properly I'll set up admin privileges for the club treasurer
and whoever else the club officers might choose to designate.

Feedback needed. Thanks.

My apologies about all the vacation reply messages. There'll be no more of those until the owner of that address lets Chris KLOUD know he's back from vacation.

Apologies again, everyone. I meant to have the new list set up as much as possible like the original, but having the "reply to" address be the whole list instead of the individual poster, was my mistake.
It's
rectified now.
